

III. Commitment to Diversity and Accommodations

The Counseling Program at ULM is committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion throughout the curriculum and clinical experience. We invite diversity and foster a culture of inclusion that supports multiple dimensions of culture that includes race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, religious affiliation, spirituality, nationality, regionality, disability, and beyond.

Within the Counseling Program, we attempt to foster and maintain a safe environment of respect and inclusion for faculty, staff, students, and members of the communities we serve. We educate

All courses in the Counseling Program are 100% online. Students will need a computer, internet access, and access to their myULM account that will give them access to Banner, Canvas, the bookstore, and Degree Works. Students should also have access to a Zoom account for synchronous meetings and to complete any class projects that are recorded.

View Canvas regularly for supplemental materials, additional handouts, required readings, and all class lessons. Students bare responsible for checking the site each week, for printing any materials necessary for class preparation, and for all content on this website.
